A Word to the Visitor

THE fascinating East is about to pay you a visit. Over one hundred and fifty similar Exhibitions have been held in the old country. Five years ago in the Royal Agricultural Hall, London, nearly 400,000 people were attracted. It may be asked wherein consisted the attraction? Was it costly scenery or attractive entertainments? It would have to be unique in its way to tempt Londoners during the height of the season, glutted with endless attractions. What made these crowds come to "Palestine?"

There were no entertainments, no military bands, and the scenery was of a very modest description. What attracted London was the old-world life of the Holy Land, its unchanging customs and manners, and the light it threw on many a Scripture passage. "The Bible has become a new book" is the universal testimony of all who visit the Exhibition.

We therefore invite you to visit "Palestine" as though you were in the Holy Land itself. Walk round every Court, miss no Section, listen to the explanations given by competent speakers. Do not omit the Costume Scenes in the Annex which will be given twice daily. Do this on one day only, and you will want to come again and yet again, and when the Exhibition closes its doors you will thank God for its messages and its inspiration. But your interest will not stop there; you will be eager to give the Gospel to the Nation whose ancestors gave it to you, and Jewish Missions will become very dear to you for the sake of Him who is The King of the Jews.

Two Texts to Remember:

St. Matthew i., 1: "Jesus Christ the Son of Abraham."

St. Matthew xxviii., 10: "Jesus said: go, tell my brethren."

Solomon's Quarries

Notice the size of the stone hanging from the ceiling

Opening Service

"Ye that are the Lord's Remembrancers, take ye no rest, and give Him no rest, till He make Jerusalem a praise in the earth."—Is. lxii., 5, 6.

A Prayer for the Exhibition

O GOD of the universe, who of old didst set apart the Land of Canaan to be the dwelling-place of Thy Chosen Nation, and didst hallow it by the footsteps of our blessed Lord; Bless, we beseech Thee, this our effort to bring to the mind of Thy Church the sacred memories of that Holy Land, and to make the Gospel the glory of Thy people Israel. Prosper Thou this work of our hands. May it be begun, continued, and ended in Thee, and redound to the honor of Thy great Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"The Lord shall be king over all the earth."—Zech. xiv., 9.

Opening Hymn

Zion's King shall reign victorious;
 All the earth shall own His sway;
 He shall make His kingdom glorious;
 He shall reign through endless day.
 Nations, now from God estranged,
 Then shall see a glorious light;
 Night to day shall then be changed,
 Heaven shall triumph in the sight.
 Then shall Israel, long dispersed,
 Mourning seek the Lord their God.
 Look on Him whom once they pierced,
 Own and kiss the chastening rod.
 Mighty King, Thine arm revealing,
 Now Thy glorious cause maintain;
 Bring the nations help and healing,
 Make them subject to Thy reign. Amen

Closing Hymn

"The Lord's Name is praised from the rising up of the sun unto the going down of the same."

The day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
The darkness falls at Thy behest,
To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

We thank Thee that Thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.

As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.

The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
And hour by hour fresh lips are making
Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

So be it Lord; Thy Throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
Thy Kingdom stands, and grows forever,
Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway. Amen.

THE REV. SAMUEL SCHOR,
Manager of the Exhibition, who was born in Jerusalem.

List of Courts and Exhibits

1.—ANCIENT JERUSALEM.

Model of the Holy City as it was in the days of our Lord.

2.—HEROD'S TEMPLE.

Model of the Temple in which our Lord walked and taught.

3.—FULL-SIZED TABERNACLE.

Full-sized model of the only structure in the world which had God for its Architect.
(Admission 10 Cents.)

4.—BETHANY HOME.

Model of just such a Cottage as Mary, Martha and Lazarus lived in.

5.—BEDOUIN TENT

An actual Tent brought from the banks of the River Jordan. Exactly similar to that in which dwelt Abraham and Sarah.

6.—POOR CARPENTER'S HOME.

To enter this is to realize what the Apostle meant when he said: "Though He was rich, yet for our sakes He became poor."

7.—ROCK-HEWN TOMB.

A model of an Eastern Tomb with its Rolling Stone.

ALSO THE BEAUTIFUL NEW MODEL OF THE GARDEN TOMB (OR GORDON'S CALVARY).

This is believed by many eminent scholars to be the actual place of the Crucifixion and Burial of our Lord.

8.—PASSOVER TABLE.

Here will be given an interesting description of how the Jews keep the Passover.

In charge of Mr. G. J. Byrnell.

9.—COURT OF ARCHAEOLOGY.

An intensely interesting Court to Bible Students—Showing how the Biblical records have been confirmed by discoveries in Egypt, Assyria and Palestine.

10.—COURT OF AGRICULTURE.

Showing all the Agricultural Implements in Palestine, and their method of use, which throws much light on Bible incidents.

11.—JEWISH MISSIONARY COURT.

Here will be found an interesting collection of exhibits connected with Jewish Religious Worship. All the preceding Courts and Models will show how much we, as Christians, have received from God's Ancient People, the Jews. This Court will perhaps help us to realize how little we have given in return. It will also encourage us to know how God does love the little we have done for the people whom He loves with an everlasting love, and this important and interesting department will also illustrate the valuable work of Medical Missions amongst the Jews.

Notices of the Times of Lectures will be given at each Court.

In a Native Inn

12.—BIBLE SOCIETY'S STALL.

Illustrative of the unique work of the "Handmaid of all Missionary Societies."

In charge of Rev. J. Knox Wright.

The following places will be visited by this Exhibition:

Victoria in February.

Calgary in March.

Winnipeg in April.

Toronto in May.

PLEASE WRITE AND TELL YOUR FRIENDS.

BIBLE READING at 5.30 daily. Conducted by the REV.

SAMUEL SCHOR, on the subject of Prophecy,

Fulfilled and Unfulfilled.

The Greatest World Movements come under survey. History, Politics, The Powers, The Eastern Question, Wars, Pestilence, Earthquakes, Revolutions, Turkey and the Jews, Christ's Second Coming, His Reign in Jerusalem, Armageddon and the Millenium, etc.

A Corner in the Palestine Exhibit

Jerusalem Market

Most of the Goods on Sale Here have come from the Holy Land, and are quite in keeping with the Exhibition.

MANY OF THE ARTICLES ARE MADE BY JEWISH HANDS.

1. BETHLEHEM STALL—Containing articles of Mother-o'-Pearl made in Bethlehem, Glass Ornaments, Bracelets, Necklaces, Charms, etc., made in the city where Abraham lived and died.
2. ORIENTAL DRAPERIES STALL—Containing Damascus Silks and Draperies of graceful designs and beautiful colors.
3. OLIVE WOOD STALL—A splendid assortment of useful and fancy articles in this beautiful wood, made by Jewish Converts in Jerusalem.
4. PICTURE POST CARDS—Of the Holy Land. These are not obtainable elsewhere, and make a beautiful series.
5. TURKISH DELIGHT STALL—The Turkish Delight made by Mr. Politi before the public, and of purest materials.
6. LITERATURE—Books, Papers, etc., dealing with the Holy Land.
7. PALESTINE CURIOS—A variety of interesting relics from the Holy Land, both ancient and modern.
8. SOUVENIRS, POSTAGE STAMPS, ETC.—For the sale of Foreign and Colonial Stamps. Supporting the "Stamps Bed" in the Hospital in Safed in Galilee.

LITERATURE--No visitor should leave the Exhibition without taking one or more of the attractive and interesting books on Palestine sold at the Literature Stall.

Do you read the "Jewish Missionary Intelligence"? If not, you cannot possibly know how God is preparing the world for the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. May be ordered at the bookstall or Missionary Court.

Syllabus of Costume Lectures

These Fascinating Lectures will be given twice daily, at 3.30 and 8.30 o'clock.

By the REV. SAMUEL SCHOR (a native of Jerusalem) and the Misses Frances and Dorothy Schor, who will be assisted by a band of about fifty Ladies and Gentlemen and Boys and Girls.

Hon. Secretary, Mrs. Peter.

THESE interesting Demonstrations, which always attract great crowds, will consist of Oriental Scenes, Eastern Music, and Bridal Processions, through which the Bible is made to speak by the unchanged life of the East.

Admission, 15 Cents; Children under Twelve, 10 Cents.

The Subjects are as follows:

January 6 and 15.

1.—THE DRESS OF THE CHANGELESS EAST

The platform will present a very attractive picture of the endless variety of dress and color, and after some illustrations of Eastern Music and the Bridal Scene, a study will be made of the subject of Eastern Dress and Fashion—a Bethlehemite—the Pieces of Silver—Ruth's Veil—a Bedouin Princess—Villagers—The Galilean Bride—Grinding at the Mill—Townspeople—The Mantle of Camel's Hair—and a variety of other interesting points connected with Eastern Dress.

January 7 and 16.

2.—LIFE IN A JERUSALEM HOME

The platform will present an Eastern Room, "furnished and prepared" according to the many varied customs relating to Home Life. Many curious customs will be illustrated: Eastern Salutations—Taking Off the Shoes—Entertaining a Guest—Knocking at the Door—Slave Watching Her Mistress—Washing Hands and Feet—Dipping the Sop—"Friend, come higher"—Our Lord's Behaviour to Judas—also, from time to time, A Native School Scene.

January 8, 17 and 24.

3. THE LIFE OF AN EASTERN SHEPHERD

A Shepherd wearing rough sheepskin garments will be introduced showing his rod, staff, sling, sheepfold, and many other peculiar customs of shepherd and sheep, which will throw a flood of light on God's Holy Word.

'This Fascinating Lecture' the opinion of hundreds of thousands

January 9, 18 and 25.

4. SCENES IN A MARKET PLACE

Some of the characters to be seen there will be introduced: The Judge—The Scribe—The Dervish—Baker's Boy—The Sals, or Forerunner—The Water Carrier—and Strange Street Cries will be given. "We have piped, but ye have not danced" this peculiar expression will be explained. Measuring the Corn—Buying and Selling (giving quite a new meaning to Gen. xxiii.)—together with many other curious phases of Eastern life, will be exemplified.

January 10 and 20.

5. PEASANT LIFE

The peasant and his wife will be introduced, and their curious life explained, with illustrations of agricultural customs: The Weather—Rainfall—Soil—Fertility of the Country will be described—A Native Plough will be shown, also the Yoke—Goad—Threshing Instruments—The Customs of Sowing and Reaping, and how Ruth emptied six measures of barley in her veil, will be explained.

January 11 and 21.

6. JEWISH RELIGIOUS CEREMONIES

Some Religious Ceremonies will be explained by means of Phylacteries—Praying Robes—Trumpet of Ram's Horn—The Scroll of the Law, together with many interesting facts about the Jews' Synagogue

January 13 and 22.

7.—A PICNIC IN PALESTINE

How We Journey—A City Gate—The Needle's Eye; What It Means—Eastern Pottery—A Sherd to Take Fire From the Hearth—Blood Feuds—Dark Deeds—Revenge—Cities of Refuge—The Picnic Scene—A Slave Song.

January 14 and 23.

8.—WEDDING CUSTOMS IN THE EAST

Position of Woman—How Weddings are Arranged—A Matrimonial Agent—Signing the Contract—Hand and Thumb—The Dowry—Painting the Eyes—Opening Ceremony—Bridegroom at Prayer—His Coming Delayed—Virgins and Their Lamps—Final Ceremony.
